Duchy of Lancaster, January 30, 1830.

The King has been this day pleased to appoint Peter Hesketh, of Rossall-Hall, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county palatine of Lancaster for the year ensuing.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 5, 1830.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, February 4, 1830.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty to inform you, that His Majesty receives from all Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their desire to maintain and cultivate the most friendly relations with this Country.

His Majesty has seen with satisfaction that the war between Russia and the Ottoman Porte has been brought to a conclusion. The efforts of His Majesty to accomplish the main objects of the Treaty of the 6th July 1827 have been unremitted.

His Majesty, having recently concerted with His Allies measures for the pacification and final settlement of Greece, trusts that He shall be enabled, at an early period, to communicate to you the particulars of this arrangement, with such information as may explain the course which His Majesty has pursued throughout the progress of these important transactions.

His Majesty laments that He is unable to announce to you the prospect of a reconciliation between the Princes of the House of Braganza.

His Majesty has not yet deemed it expedient to re-establish, upon their ancient footing, His Majesty's diplomatic relations with the kingdom of Portugal; but the numerous embarrassments arising from the continued interruption of these relations

in-

increase His Majesty's desire to effect the termination of so serious an evil.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has directed the estimates for the current year to be laid before you. They have been framed with every attention to economy, and it will be satisfactory to you to learn, that His Majesty will be enabled to propose a considerable reduction in the amount of the public expenditure, without impairing the efficiency of our naval or military establishments.

We are commanded by His Majesty to inform you, that although the national income during the last year has not attained the full amount at which it had been estimated, the diminution is not such as to cause any doubt as to the future prosperity of the revenue.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty commands us to acquaint you, that His attention has been of late earnestly directed to various important considerations connected with improvements in the general administration of the Law.

His Majesty has directed that measures shall be submitted for your deliberation, of which some are calculated, in the opinion of His Majesty, to facilitate and expedite the course of justice in different parts of the United Kingdom, and others appear to be necessary preliminaries to a revision of the practice and proceedings of the superior Courts.

We are commanded to assure you, that His Majesty feels confident that you will give your best attention and assistance to subjects of such deep and lasting concern to the well-being of His people.

His Majesty commands us to inform you, that the export in the last year of British produce and manufactures has exceeded that of any former year.

His Majesty laments that, notwithstanding this
in-

indication of active commerce, distress should prevail among the agricultural and manufacturing classes in some parts of the United Kingdom.

It would be most gratifying to the paternal feelings of His Majesty to be enabled to propose for your consideration measures calculated to remove the difficulties of any portion of His subjects, and at the same time compatible with the general and permanent interests of His people.

It is from a deep solicitude for those interests, that His Majesty is impressed with the necessity of acting with extreme caution in reference to this important subject.

His Majesty feels assured that you will concur with Him in assigning due weight to the effect of unfavourable seasons, and to the operation of other causes which are beyond the reach of Legislative controul or remedy.

Above all, His Majesty is convinced that no pressure of temporary difficulty will induce you to relax the determination which you have uniformly manifested to maintain inviolate the public credit, and thus to uphold the high character and the permanent welfare of the country.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2d day of February 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable John Charles Herries, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

Wind-

Windsor-Castle, February 2, 1830.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon William Bolland, Esq. one of the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon John Bernard Bosanquet, one of the Judges of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas.

Court of King's-Bench, February 5, 1830.

The following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

Warrant authorising the Judges to hold a Special Sitting.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorised, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Man-

Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to Us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Hilary Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice, and the other Judges of Our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Monday the nineteenth day of April next, and from thence daily until and upon Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of the same month, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of this present Hilary Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; provided always, that if the attendance of any one of you at the Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the county of Middlesex, or at any such Session or any Circuit, shall be found requisite, during any part of the time herein mentioned, and another of you shall also, during such attendance, be sitting for the trial of causes at Nisi Prius, then it shall be in the discretion of the remaining two of you either to meet or not to meet, in obedience hereto, according to the nature of the busibusiness that may be likely to come before you during such attendance.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this first day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty, in the eleventh year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

ROBERT PEEL.

To the Lord Chief Justice and other the Judges of Our Court before Us.

TOWN OF WEXFORD.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Charles Roper, Esq. and others, complaining of an undue election and return for the town of Wexford, in the county of Wexford, have this day reported to the House of Commons, that it appeared to the Committee on the said petition, that the merits of the petition did depend, in part, upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the Committee required the Counsel for the several parties to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: “That the right of election for Members to “ serve in Parliament for the said town or free-“ borough of Wexford, is in such Freemen of the “ said town or free borough as had served appren“ ticeships therein, or were resident therein at the “ time of their admission to their respective free“ doms; that no person can be admitted a Free“ man of said town or free borough, who has not “ served an apprenticeship therein, or who is not “ resident therein at the time of his admission;
“ that, subject to the foregoing limitations, the per“ sons having served seven years apprenticeship to “ Free-

“ Freemen of the said town or free borough are “ entitled to the freedom of the said town or free “ borough, and to vote at elections for the same ;
 “ that all merchants, traders and artificers, and sea“ men, residing, inhabiting, and exercising their “ trade, mystery, or craft, within the said borough,
 “ are of right entitled, under the Act of the thir“ teenth and fourteenth of Charles the Second, in“ titled ‘ An Act for encouraging Protestant “ strangers and others to inhabit and plant in the “ kingdom of Ireland,’ to the freedom thereof, and “ to vote at elections for the same, during their “ constant residence therein, and no longer:”—
 That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows: “ That the right of “ voting is in the Mayor, Bailiffs, Free Burgesses, “ and Community or Freemen, whether resident or “ not:”—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said town or borough:—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said town or borough:—That the Committee have determined, that the right of election for Members to serve in Parliament for the said town or borough of Wexford, is in such Freemen of the said town or borough as had served apprenticeships therein, or were resident therein at the time of their admission to their respective freedoms; that no person can be admitted a Freeman of the said town or borough, who has not served an apprenticeship therein, or who is not resident therein at the time of his admission; that, subject to the foregoing limitations, the persons having served seven years apprenticeship to Freemen

men of the said town or borough are entitled to the freedom of the said town or borough, and to vote at elections for the same ; that all persons admitted to the freedom of the said town or borough, by virtue of an Act, passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled “ An Act for encouraging Protestant strangers and others to inhabit and plant in the kingdom of Ireland,” or by virtue of the “ New Rules,” are entitled to vote at elections for Members of Parliament therein, according to the directions of the said Act and New Rules :

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections, or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand, the 15th day of March 1830,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

And five private Acts.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods, the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever, and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions," it is enacted, "that the privileges thereby granted to " foreign

“ foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those “ countries which, having colonial possessions, shall “ grant the like privileges of trading with those “ possessions to British ships, or which, not having “ colonial possessions, shall place the commerce
 “ and navigation of this country, and of its posses“ sions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured “ nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in “ Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to “ grant the whole or any of such privileges to the “ ships of any foreign country, although the con“ ditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled
 “ by such foreign country:”

And whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to amend the laws relating to the “ Customs,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the conditions so prescribed as aforesaid in and by the said Act so passed in the said sixth year of His Majesty's reign, as to be entitled to the privileges therein mentioned, unless such foreign country had in all respects fulfilled those conditions within twelve months next after the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on or before the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and for the better ascertaining what particular foreign countries are permitted by law to exercise and enjoy the said privileges, it is thereby further enacted, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the beforementioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall by some Order or Orders to be by him made, by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges; provided always, and it is thereby declared and enacted, that nothing therein contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to make void or annul any

any Order or Orders in Council theretofore issued, under the authority or in pursuance of the said recited Act of the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, or to take away or abridge the powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said Act, or any of those powers, any thing therein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding :

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Majesty doth therefore, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said recited Acts of Parliament, declare and grant, that it shall and may be lawful for Austrian ships to import from the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, into any of the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of such dominions, and to export goods from such British possessions abroad, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of De Lacy Evans, Esq. a Lieutenant-Colonel in His Majesty's Army, and also the petition of John Meryon, Thomas Barry, and others, inhabitants of the town and port of Rye, complaining of an undue election and return for the said town and port, have this day reported to the House of Commons, that it appeared to the Committee, that the merits of the petitions did depend, in part, upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the Committee required the Counsel for the several parties to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election for Barons of the town and port of Rye, as a Member of the Cinque Ports, is in the Mayor and Jurats, and in the Freeman, such Freeman being Freeman and Barons of the Cinque Ports, inhabiting and residing, and paying scot and lot, in the said town and port:"—That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election of Barons to serve in Parliament for the port of Rye, is only in the Mayor, Jurats, and in the Freeman inhabiting the said port, and pay-

" i: g,

“ing scot and lot:”—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said town and port:—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not a full and sufficient statement of the right of election for the said town and port:—That the Committee have determined, that the right of election for Barons to serve in Parliament for the said town and port of Rye, is only in the Mayor, Jurats, and Freemen inhabiting the same, and paying scot and lot, such Freemen being duly admitted as Barons and Freemen according to the ancient customs and usages of the said town and port of Rye, and in conformity with the privileges granted to the said town and port by royal charter:—That it appears from the records of the town of Rye, that it was an ancient custom of that town, that every person born within that town, and being of honest behaviour, and capable, and in good sort deserving, was entitled to be made free, by taking the oath appointed to be taken by Barons and Freemen; and administered by the Mayor and Jurats, if the son of a Freeman to be so made free by his father's copy, and if not the son of a Freeman, then upon the payment of a fine, the amount of which was regulated from time to time by decree of the Hundred Court:—That it further appears from the same records, to have been an ancient custom of the said town of Rye, that every stranger who had come into the town, and had inhabited and there dwelt by a whole year and a day, and who had occupied some honest craft, and was of good guiding and conversation, and desired the franchise, should be admitted thereto by the Mayor and Jurats in Pleyne Common Court, by taking the oath appointed to be taken by Barons and Freeman, and upon paying to the Commonalty a fine, the amount of which was to be awarded by the Mayor and Jurats under the authority of decrees of the Hundred Court:—That it further appears from the said records, that it was an ancient custom of the town of Rye, that the Mayor was allowed, once during every Mayoralty, to make one Freeman gratis, with the consent of seven Jurats:

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of the Act, made in the ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled
 “ An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections, or “ returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand, the 17th day of May 1830;

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY of JUNE 27, 1830.Whitehall, June 27, 1830.

ON Saturday Morning, at fifteen minutes past three o'clock, Our late Most Gracious Sovereign King George the Fourth, who had suffered from severe indisposition for some weeks, expired without apparent pain, in the sixty-eighth year of His age, and eleventh of His reign. The intelligence of His Majesty's decease caused the deepest affliction to His faithful and loyal Subjects, to whom He was endeared by the virtues which adorned His character, and by the anxious desire which His Majesty had uniformly manifested to promote the welfare of His People.

Upon the news of this melancholy event arriving in London, the Lords of the Privy Council assembled yesterday at St. James's Palace, and gave orders for proclaiming His present Majesty, who made a most gracious Declaration to them, and caused all the Lords and others of the late King's Privy Council, who were then present, to be sworn of His Majesty's Privy Council.

Whereas

Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God to call to His Mercy Our late Sovereign Lord King George the Fourth, of Blessed and Glorious Memory, by whose decease the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is solely and rightfully come to the High and Mighty Prince William Henry, Duke of Clarence and St. Andrews, and Earl of Munster; We, therefore, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of this Realm, being here assisted with these of His late Majesty's Privy Council, with numbers of other principal Gentlemen of Quality, with the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of London, do now hereby, with one voice and consent of tongue and heart, publish and proclaim that the High and Mighty Prince William Henry, Duke of Clarence and St. Andrews, and Earl of Munster, is now, by the death of Our late Sovereign, of Happy Memory, become our only lawful and rightful Liege Lord William the Fourth, by the Grace of God, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith. To whom We do acknowledge all faith and constant obedience with all hearty and humble affection, beseeching God, by whom Kings and Queens do reign, to bless the Royal Prince, William the Fourth, with long and happy years to reign over Us.

At the Court at St. James's, the 26th day of June 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty being this day present in Council, was pleased to make the following Declaration, viz.

I AM convinced that you will fully participate in the affliction which I am suffering on account of the loss of a Sovereign, under whose auspices, as Regent and as King, this Country has maintained during War its ancient Reputation and Glory—has enjoyed a long period of Happiness and internal Peace—and has possessed the Friendship, Respect, and Confidence of Foreign Powers.

In addition to that loss which I sustain in common with you, and with all who lived under the Government of a most beneficent and gracious King—I have to lament the death of a beloved and affectionate Brother, with whom I have lived, from my earliest years, in terms of the most cordial and uninterrupted friendship, and to whose favour and kindness I have been most deeply indebted.

After having passed my life in the Service of my Country, and having, I trust, uniformly acted as the most faithful Subject and Servant of the King, I am now called upon, under the Dispensation of Almighty God, to administer the Government of this great Empire. I am fully sensible of the difficulties which I have to encounter; but I possess the advantage of having witnessed the conduct of my revered Father, and my lamented and beloved Brother; and I rely with confidence upon the advice and assistance of Parliament, and upon its zealous co-operation in my anxious endeavours, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to maintain the Reformed Religion established by law, to protect the Rights and Liberties, and to promote the Prosperity and Happiness of all classes of my People.

Whereupon the Lords of the Council made it their humble request to His Majesty, that this His Majesty's most gracious Declaration to their Lordships might be made public; which His Majesty was pleased to order accordingly.

WHEREAS by the late Act of Uniformity, which establisheth the Liturgy, and enacts, that no form or order of common prayer be openly used other than what is prescribed and appointed to be used in and by the said Book, it is, notwithstanding, provided that in all those Prayers, Litanies, and Collects which do anywise relate to the King, Queen, or Royal Progeny, the names be altered and changed, from time to time, and fitted to the present occasion, according to direction of lawful authority. His Majesty was pleased this day, in Council, to declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, that in all the Prayers, Liturgies, and Collects for the King, instead of the word "George," the word "William" be inserted; and that in all the Prayers, Liturgies, and Collects for the Royal Family, the words "Our Gracious Queen Adelaide, and" be inserted before the words "all the Royal Family."

And His Majesty doth strictly charge and command, that no Edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but with this amendment; and that in the mean time, till copies of such Edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this Realm, do (for the preventing of mistakes) with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the aforegoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality.

WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery, and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on which We entirely rely) rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourselves and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws ; to the intent therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person ; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour ; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent : and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever ; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law : and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dis-

dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, - to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the better observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the 9th year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled "An Act for the more effectual suppressing of blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure: And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given: and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read, or cause to be read, this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness: And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and that by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations, they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring all Persons, being in Office of Authority or Government at the Decease of the late King, to proceed in the Execution of their respective Offices.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the sixth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled "An Act for the security of Her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line," it was enacted that no office, place, or employment, civil or military, within the kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, dominion of Wales, town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, or any of His Majesty's plantations, should become void by reason of the demise of Her said late Majesty, Her heirs or successors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that every person and persons in any of the offices, places, and employments aforesaid, should continue in their respective offices, places, and employments for the space of six months next after such death or demise, unless sooner removed and discharged by the next successor to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm was limited and appointed to go, remain, and descend; and whereas by an Act, made in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the continuation of all and every person or persons in any and every office, place, or employment, civil or military, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ire“ land, dominion of Wales, town of Berwick-“ upon-Tweed, isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alder“ ney, Sark, and Man, and also in all and every

 “ of His Majesty’s foreign possessions, colonies,

 “ Crown, at the time of the death or demise of “ His present Majety, until removed or dis“ charged therefrom by the succeeding King or “ Queen of this Realm,” it was enacted, that all and every person and persons who, upon the day of the demise of His said late Majesty, should hold any office, civil or military, under the Crown during pleasure, should, under and by virtue of the said Aet, and without any new or other patent, commission, warrant, or authority, continue and be entitled in all respects, notwithstanding the demise of His said Majesty, to hold and enjoy the same ; but, nevertheless, the same should be held or enjoyed only during the pleasure of the King or Queen who should succeed to the Crown upon the demise of His said late Majesty, and the right and title to hold and enjoy the same, under the authority of the said Aet, should be determinable in such and the like manner by the King or Queen who upon the demise of His said late Majesty should succeed to the Crown, as the right or title to any office, place, or employment granted by such succeeding King or Queen during pleasure, would by law be determinable ; We, therefore,
 with the advice of Our Privy Council, declare Our Royal will and pleasure to be, and do hereby direct and command, that all and every person and persons who, at the time of the demise of Our late Royal Brother, of glorious memory, duly and lawfully held, or were duly and lawfully possessed of or invested in any office, place, or employment, civil or military, within Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, dominion of Wales, town

town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or any of Our foreign possessions, colonies, or plantations, do severally, according to their places, offices, or charges, proceed in the performance and execution of all duties belonging to their respective offices, whilst they shall hold the same respectively during Our pleasure; and We do hereby require and command all Our loving subjects to be aiding, helping, and assisting at the commandment of the said Officers and Ministers, in the performance and execution of their respective offices and places, as they and every of them tender Our utmost displeasure, and will answer the contrary at their peril.

PRINCES OF THE BLOOD ROYAL,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF SUSSEX, in a long black cloak, with the Star of the Order of the Garter embroidered thereon, and wearing the Collars of the Garter, the Thistle, and the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order; his train borne by Vice-Admiral Sir Thomas Williams, K. C. B. and Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esq.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE LEOPOLD OF SAXE COBURG, in a long black cloak, with the Star of the Order of the Garter embroidered thereon, and wearing the Collars of the Garter, the Bath, and the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order; his train borne by Lieut.-Colonel Sir Robert Gardiner, K. C. B. and K. C. H. and Lieut.-Colonel the Hon. Edward Cust.

A Royal Guard of Honour, composed of one hundred and forty rank and file, with Officers and non-commissioned officers in equal proportions, from the King's Company, the Coldstream, and 3d Regiments of Guards, commanded by the Captain of the King's Company.

Gentlemen Pensioners, with their axes reversed.

Yeomen of the Guard, with their partizans reversed.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF CUMBERLAND, in a long black cloak, with the Star of the Order of the Garter embroidered thereon, and wearing the Collars of the Garter, the Bath, St. Patrick, and the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order; his train borne by Major-General Sir Colquhoun Grant, K. C. B. and Lieutenant-Colonel F. Poten.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF GLOUCESTER, in a long black cloak, with the Star of the Order of the Garter embroidered thereon, and wearing the Collars of the Garter, the Bath, and the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order; his train borne by Colonel Higgins and Major William F. Forster.

Upon the arrival of the Procession at the South Door of St. George's Chapel, His late Majesty's Band of Music, the trumpets and drums, and the Knight Marshal's Men, and Officers filed off without the door.

At the entrance of the Chapel the Royal Body was received by the Dean and Prebendaries, attended by the Choirs of Windsor and of the Chapel Royal (who fell in immediately before Norroy King of Arms), and the Procession moved down the South Aisle and up the Nave, into the Choir, where the Royal Body was placed on a platform under a Canopy of purple velvet (having thereon Escocheons of the Royal Arms, and surmounted by an Imperial Crown), and the Crowns and Cushions were laid upon the Coffin.

His Majesty, the Chief Mourner, sat on a Chair of State, at the head of the Corpse, and the Supporters stood on each side.

Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland, Sussex, Prince George of Cumberland, the Duke of Gloucester, and Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg, were seated near His Majesty, the Chief Mourner.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household took his place at the feet of the Corpse; and the Supporters and Assistant Supporters of the Pall and of the Canopy arranged themselves on each side of the Royal Body.

The Peers, Assistants to the Chief Mourner, arranged themselves behind the Princes of the Blood Royal.

The Peers bearing the Banners were placed on each side below the Altar.

During the Service the Knights of the Garter present occupied their respective stalls, with the exception of the Duke of Wellington, who bore the Sword of State, the Duke of Beaufort, one of the Supporters to the Chief Mourner, and the Peers who supported the Pall.

The Ministers of State, the Great Officers of the Household, the Nobility, Bishops, Privy Councillors, Judges, and Law Officers, were placed in the vacant and intermediate stalls, and in the lower seats on each side of the Choir. The Grooms of the Bed-chamber, Gentlemen Ushers of the Privy Chamber, Equerries, and others, composing the Procession, were arranged on each side of the Altar, on which was placed the Gold Plate of the Chapels Royal.

The part of the Service before the interment and the Anthem being performed, the Royal Body was deposited in the vault, and the Service being concluded, His Majesty, the Chief Mourner, was conducted from the Choir to the Chapter Room of the Chapel, preceded by the Sword of State. After a short pause, Sir George Nayler, Garter Principal King of Arms, pronounced near the grave the styles of His late Most Sacred Majesty, of blessed memory, as follows :

“ THUS it hath pleased Almighty God to take “ out of this transitory life, unto His Divine “ Mercy, the late Most High, Most Mighty, and “ Most Excellent Monarch GEORGE THE “ FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the “ United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ire“ land, King, Defender of the Faith, and “ Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the “ Garter ; King of Hanover, and Duke of “ Brunswick and Lunenburgh.

“ Let us humbly beseech Almighty God to bless “ and preserve with long life, health, and “ honour, and all worldly happiness, the Most “ High, Most Mighty, and Most Excellent “ Monarch, Our Sovereign Lord WILLIAM
 “ THE FOURTH, now, by the Grace of “ God, of the United Kingdom of Great Bri“ tain and Ireland, King, Defender of the “ Faith, and Sovereign of the Most Noble
 1830. Y “ Order

“ Order of the Garter ; King of Hanover, and “ Duke of Brunswick and Lunenburgh.

“ GOD save KING WILLIAM THE FOURTH.’

After which the Marquess of Conyngham, Lord Steward of the Household to His late Majesty, and the other Officers of His late Majesty’s Household, broke their Staves of Office, and, kneeling near the grave, deposited the same in the Royal Vault ; whereupon their Royal Highnesses the Princes of the Blood Royal, the Great Officers of State, Nobility, and others, who had composed the Procession, retired.

The Knights of the several Orders, present on the occasion, wore their respective Collars, with white rosettes. In pursuance of His Majesty’s Order, the Great Officers of State, His Majesty’s Ministers, and the Officers of the Royal Household, appeared in their State Uniforms, with black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles, uniform swords with crape, and black feathers in their hats. The Officers of the Army and Navy appeared in full dress Uniforms, with the mourning directed to be worn by them at Court. The Bishops appeared in their Rochets ; the Peers, eldest Sons of Peers, Privy Councillors, and others, not included in the Royal Order, appeared in full dress black.

The Procession, from the Royal Apartments to the Choir of St. George’s Chapel, was flanked by the Grenadiers of the Foot Guards, every fourth man bearing a flambeau.

From four o’clock in the morning until nine in the evening, guns were fired at intervals of five minutes, and from nine o’clock until the conclusion of the Ceremony minute guns were fired.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

St. James's-Palace, July 17, 1830.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon his Majesty when Newman Knowlys, Esq. the Recorder, made their compliments of congratulation and condolence in the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, humbly approach your Royal Person, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, to reign over a free, loyal, and united people: we humbly offer at the same same time to your Majesty our most sincere condolence on the afflicting loss which your Majesty and the whole United Kingdom have sustained in the demise of your Royal Brother, our late revered and beloved Sovereign ; a loss which has inflicted a deep wound on the feelings of all the subjects of the United Empire.

We reflect with pride and gratitude on the pre-eminent glory attained by these realms in the deliverance of Europe from that military tyranny which had well nigh overwhelmed her, but for the energies of Britain, under Divine Providence, during the period in which the Regal functions were exercised by your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late lamented Sovereign.

We exult no less on the superiority in arts to which this country has advanced during the reign of our late Sovereign, of which the magnificent improvements in the metropolis of the empire will exhibit some of the most splendid proofs for ages yet to come.

The stream of time will sweep away the many living grateful witnesses of the amiable manners and endearing condescension of our late departed Monarch, but the faithful page of history will record to the end of time the name of George the Fourth among the number of those excellent Princes who have been at once the rulers and benefactors of their people.

Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, feel the highest consolation that the Sceptre of these Realms is still swayed by a Prince imbued from his earliest youth with principles of the greatest veneration and regard for our glorious Constitution and the just liberties of his subjects ; and they entertain the fullest persuasion, that that Constitution, and those liberties, will ever find in your Gracious Majesty their best and surest protector ; and the firmest conviction, that the

the interests and welfare of your people, will always constitute the nearest and dearest wish of your Majesty's heart.

Acept, Gracious Sire, the cordial tribute of their most sincere loyalty and affection to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the fullest assurance of their fervent prayers to the Almighty Ruler of Princes, that your Majesty's reign may be prolonged in health, in perfect connubial happiness with your illustrious and most amiable Consort, and in every other earthly blessing, to the most extended period of human existence.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" This dutiful and affectionate address, condoling with me on the loss which I have sustained, by the death of the late King, my lamented Brother, and congratulating me on my accession to the Throne of my Ancestors, is highly consolatory and satisfactory to my feelings.

" I cordially thank you for your assurances of affectionate attachment to myself and to the Queen, my beloved Consort.

" The love of my people, confirmed by the experience of a mild and paternal rule, will be the highest reward and gratification which I can receive.

" I am sensible that the prosperity of the City of London is intimately united with the general interests of the country. and I shall be discharging one of the most important of my public duties, and at the same time gratify my own paternal feelings for the good of my people, by manifesting, on every occasion, a watchful care for your liberties and ancient privileges, and by promoting, to the utmost of my power, your commerce, your industry, and your happiness."

They were all received very graciously and had the honour of kissing his Majesty's hand.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address, which was read by Newman Knowlys, Esq. the Recorder, and which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our sincere condolence on the demise of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late gracious and beloved Monarch, who lived in the hearts of his faithful people, and whose loss has occasioned universal sympathy and regret.

We feel deeply sensible that His late Majesty fully maintained the mighty influence of his Crown among the civilized nations of the world, while he cultivated with exemplary care the blessings of foreign and domestic tranquillity ; and the citizens of London must ever remember with the highest gratification that, under His late Majesty's auspices, the metropolis of the British Empire has been continually advancing in importance and dignity, and increasing in magnificence and splendour.

While we offer the tribute of our unfeigned respect for the memory of your Majesty's late illustrious Brother, we humbly tender to your Majesty our

our sincere congratulations on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Ever loyal and attached to the House of Brunswick, we look forward with peculiar satisfaction to the reign of a Prince of that House who has devoted a considerable portion of his life to the service of his country, and in the promotion of the interests of its royal navy, on which so much of the strength and glory of the United Kingdom depends : and we remember, with especial gratitude, your Majesty's regard for our privileges, your numerous acts of condescension to us and to our fellow citizens, and your personal and munificent protection of many of the charities of the metropolis, which are justly the pride and boast of the nation.

With these lively impressions of your Majesty's goodness, and relying on the wisdom and integrity of your Majesty's councils, we anticipate, with perfect confidence, that our glorious constitution will be preserved inviolate, and the happiness of your Majesty's people, and the honour of the British Empire, will be cherished and enhanced during your Majesty's reign.

We entreat your Majesty to accept our assurances of the unfeigned attachment of your Majesty's faithful citizens of London to your Majesty, and to your amiable and illustrious Consort, Queen Adelaide, the ornament and example of her sex ; and we earnestly trust that it may please Divine Providence to protect and preserve your Majesty long to govern a loyal and free people, and that prosperity and happiness may attend your Majesty's reign.

Signed by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I thank you for this loyal and affectionate address, for the justice which you have rendered to the memory of my lamented Brother, as well as for your cordial expressions of warm and dutiful attachment to myself and my beloved Consort, the Queen.

“ In these expressions I place an implicit confidence, and I assure you in return, with perfect truth, that the welfare of my good city of London, the metropolis of the great empire committed to my charge, will always be among the first objects of my solicitude.”

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand.

Mr.

Mr. Symons, Fellow of Wadham College ; Mr. Watson, Fellow of Brazen-Nose College ; Mr. Harrington, Fellow of Brazen-Nose College ; Mr. Pusey, Regius Professor of Hebrew, Christ Church ; waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, humbly approach your Royal presence with our sincere condolence on the demise of our late most gracious and beloved Sovereign, and our respectful and cordial congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors.

In common with the whole nation, we gratefully look back on the long period during which your Majesty's illustrious Brother ruled over us as Regent or as King. Never can we forget his firmness and energy in war ; his mild and constitutional government in peace ; his munificent encouragement of arts, literature, and science ; and the various marks of his especial and condescending favour repeatedly vouchsafed to that ancient seat of learning to which we belong.

But, amidst our sorrows for such a loss, we derive consolation from the thought, that the Sceptre is now swayed by another Son of the same venerated Sire ; by a Prince, whose name, like that of His late Majesty, adorns the rolls of our University ; who, trained in British principles and British feelings, assisted, in early youth, to fight the battles and uphold the naval rerenown of our country, and on the patriotism of whose riper years that country may confidently rely for parental care and protection.

In accordance with these sentiments, we shall labour to inculcate a dutiful and affectionate reverence for your Majesty's august Person and Family, an enlightened love of just subordination and well-regulated freedom, and, above all, the sacred obligation of Christian loyalty; always adding our most fervent prayers, that the reign of which we now hail the auspicious commencement may be a reign of increasing happiness to the King and to his People, under the abundant blessing of Almighty God.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our Common Seal, this 7th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1830.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ This public and solemn profession of your attachment to my Person and Government, is entitled to my warmest acknowledgments.

“ I thank you for the justice which you have rendered to the triumphant councils, and paternal rule of my lamented Brother, for your congratulations on my accession to the Throne of my Ancestors, and for your earnest prayers, that, under the blessing of Almighty God, my reign may be the source of happiness to myself and to my people.

“ Among the first objects of my care, will be the support of your ancient and venerable institutions.

“ Their powerful influence has been successfully directed to the diffusion of sound learning, and to the maintenance of just principles of religious and civil obligations.

“ Be assured of my constant protection and favour,

and continue to instil into the minds of youth a due sense of the inestimable advantages which this country has enjoyed from the mild predominance of the pure and tolerant faith which we profess, and from the integrity of those establishments, in Church and State, which have been proved, by happy experience, to be the best security for just obedience, and for well regulated freedom."

Carrighan, Deputy Registrar; Mr. Gunning, Mr. Leapingwell, and Mr. Hopkins, Beadles; waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, beg leave to approach your Royal Presence with the expression of our sincere condolence on the mournful occasion of the demise of our late illustrious and revered Monarch, your Majesty's beloved and affectionate Brother.

We cannot indeed express in adequate terms the feelings of gratitude excited in our minds by the remembrance of the many blessings which this country has enjoyed during his happy and glorious reign.

The awful events which were passing in rapid succession at the period of His late Majesty's accession to the Regency, are fresh in the recollection of us all. Europe was then engaged in a warfare which threatened with destruction all the establishments of civilized society. In this critical posture of affairs, no private feeling or personal attachment could induce His Majesty to depart from that line of policy, which, in the exercise of his own sound judgment, he considered best calculated to rescue his country from the unexampled dangers with which it was surrounded, and to restore peace to the contending world. To the wisdom of his councils, and the energy of his Government, are mainly to be attributed, under the guidance of a merciful Providence, the brilliant successes of the British arms, and the termination of a long and arduous struggle by an honourable and advantageous peace.

The repose which we have enjoyed during the last fifteen years, has been marked by the same anxious solicitude on the part of our late lamented Monarch to promote, to the utmost extent, the cultivation of the arts of peace. His constant patronage and munificent liberality were extended to every institution which had for its object the advancement of religion and learning, the improvement of society, or the alleviation of distress.

After this heartfelt, though inadequate tribute of respect to the memory of our late revered and lamented Sovereign, we beg to offer our sincere congratulations to your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. We hail with the liveliest satisfaction your Majesty's gracious declaration—that the greater part of your life has been spent in the service of your country, and that in the administration of the affairs of this mighty empire, you will possess the advantage of having witnessed the conduct of your honoured Father and beloved Brother.

With such experience in your Royal Person, and with these brilliant examples before you, we are fully persuaded that your Majesty's utmost exertions will be used, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to maintain the reformed religion, established by law, to protect the rights and liberties, and to promote the prosperity and happiness of all classes of your people.

With the sincerest professions of our own loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our unrenmitting endeavours to instil the same principles into the minds of the youths, with whose education we are entrusted,—we unite, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, in fervent prayer to the Supreme Disposer of events, that your reign may be prosperous and happy, that the peace and tranquillity of your dominions may be preserved, and that you may long enjoy the heartfelt satisfaction of reigning with your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen, in the affections of a free, enlightened, and loyal people.

To

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I return you my cordial thanks for this public testimony of your respect for the memory of my beloved Brother, and of your affectionate attachment to my Person and Government.

“ The sentiments which you have expressed confirm my satisfaction, that to you is committed the important charge of guarding the great interests of religion and morality, and of diffusing the blessings of enlightened knowledge. You have manifested to the world that you have a just sense of the awful responsibility which is thus imposed upon you, and that you are worthy of the sacred trust which you have undertaken.

“ It is a duty which I owe to God and to my people, to maintain to the utmost of my power the true profession of the Gospel, and the Protestant reformed religion, established by law, and I have a deep conviction, that I cannot discharge that duty more effectually than by favouring and protecting those ancient Academic Institutions, which teach the sound doctrines of religious and civil duty, and which exhibit to the youth of this country the examples of profound learning and true piety.”

His Majesty was this day pleased to invest His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex with the ensigns of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

His Majesty having signed the several instruments for that purpose, which were, previously to the ceremony, presented to the Sovereign by Robert Quarme, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod, in the absence of the Secretary,

His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex was called into the royal presence, being preceded by Robert Quarme, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod, and supported by the Earl Cathcart and the Earl of Aberdeen, the two next Senior Knights present.

Upon entering into the royal presence, with the usual reverences, His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex was presented by the said two Knights, and kneeling down, His Royal Highness having kissed His Majesty's hand, rose up, when the Usher of the Green Rod administered the oath to His Royal Highness; then Green Rod, kneeling, presented the ensigns of the Order, upon a crimson velvet cushion, to the King, who put the ribband over His Royal Highness's left shoulder; His Royal Highness withdrew, with the usual reverences, in the same manner in which he had entered.

The ceremony was performed in the King's Closet, several of the Great Officers of State and of the Court being present.

After which William Grewar, Esq. had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand, on being appointed Deputy to Lord Robert Kerr, Secretary to the said Most Noble Order.

Windsor-Castle, July 17, 1830.

This day the Dean and Canons of the Free Chapel of Saint George, at Windsor, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of St. George, within your Castle of Windsor, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of condolence upon the recent mournful occasion.

We participate in that affliction which your Majesty has experienced for the loss of an affectionate Brother, and we sympathise in those feelings of sorrow, which have been expressed throughout the nation, for the loss of a Sovereign whose mild and beneficent reign had justly endeared him to all his subjects.

While, however, in common with your Majesty, we deplore the loss which has plunged in grief the loyal subjects of these realms, we cannot but derive consolation from reflecting, that the Crown has descended upon the head of a Prince matured in judgment, and peculiarly connected, by education and habits, with the strength and glory of Britain.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this Kingdom, and we behold with the greatest satisfaction another Son of that revered Monarch (whose paternal care for the welfare of his subjects formed so conspicuous a feature in his benignant character), seated on the Throne, and at the head of the most honourable and noble Order of the Garter.

It has been most gratifying to us to learn your 1830. B b Ma-

Majesty's expressed determination to support the reformed religion established in this United Kingdom; and we most fervently implore the assistance of the Almighty to enable your Majesty long to confer the blessings of a peaceful and a happy reign, upon a loyal and grateful people.

St. James's-Palace, July 21, 1830.

This day the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor; Sir James Shaw, Bart. and Alderman; Sir Charles Flower, Bart. and Alderman; Colonel Sir Claudius Stephen Hunter, Bart. and Alderman; Mr. Alderman Garratt; Sir Peter Laurie, Knight and Alderman; Mr. Alderman Copeland; Sir William Rawlins, Knight; Thomas Williams, Esq. Deputy; Matthew Wilson, Esq.; and Edward Grose Smith, Esq. Clerk; Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London; waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Person, with the sincerest expressions of our unshaken loyalty, and sacred respect for your Majesty's Person and Government.

We lament with the deepest sorrow the demise of our late most beloved Sovereign King George the Fourth,

Fourth, a Monarch under whose auspicious reign this kingdom, by the wisdom of its councils, and the valour of its arms, so materially assisted in the liberation of Europe, and attained to the highest degree of national glory.

Sire,

Whilst we express our feelings of condolence on the severe loss which your Majesty and the public have so recently sustained, we hail the accession to the Throne of a Prince, who, by his virtues, has long been endeared to the nation, who in early life has signalised himself in its fleets, and has at all times been ready to support the Constitution and the liberties of the subject; we retire from your Royal presence with the most fervent wishes, that your Majesty may long reign over a loyal people, in the full enjoyment (together with Her most gracious Majesty our Queen) of all earthly felicity; and that your Majesty may continue to witness the encreasing glory of your country, and the encreased happiness of your people. Edwd. Grose Smith, Clerk and Treasurer.

---

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I thank you for this loyal and affectionate Address.

“ I feel confident that I may rely on your attachment and loyalty, and on your zealous co-operation with me in promoting those public objects for which you have been constituted.”

War-Office, 22d July 1830.

MEMORANDUM.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct, that the 9th Regiment of Light Dragoons shall hereafter assume the title of the 9th (or Queen's Royal) Lancers.

FROM THE
SUPPLEMENT

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 23,
1830.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir William Rae, Bart. Lord Advocate of Scotland, was, by His Majesty's command, sworn one of His Majesty's Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

At the Court at St. James's, the 24th day of July 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the custody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable James Earl of Rosslyn, the oath of the Keeper of the Privy Seal was this day administered to him.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right

Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel to be one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this day by His Majesty's command sworn one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable John Charles Herries, and in his absence the Right Honourable Thomas Peregrine Courtenay, President of the Committee of Privy Council, appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

St. James's-Palace, July 23, 1830.

This day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock; and, having alighted from the state coach, was received at the portico by the Great Officers of State and others, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having put on the imperial crown, the procession moved into the House in the usual order.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

On this first occasion of meeting you, I am desirous siours of repeating to you in person My cordial thanks for those assurances of sincere sympathy and affectionate attachment which you conveyed to Me on the demise of My lamented Brother, and on My accession to the Throne of My Ancestors.

I ascend that Throne with a deep sense of the sacred duties which devolve upon Me,—with a firm reliance on the affection of My faithful subjects, and on the support and co-operation of Parliament,—and with an humble and earnest prayer to Almighty God that He will prosper My anxious endeavours to promote the happiness of a free and loyal people.

It is with the utmost satisfaction that I find Myself enabled to congratulate you upon the general tranquillity of Europe; this tranquillity it will be the object of My constant endeavours to preserve; and the assurances which I receive from My Allies, and from all Foreign Powers, are dictated in a similar spirit.

I trust that the good understanding which prevails upon subjects of common interest, and the deep concern which every State must have in maintaining the peace of the world, will ensure the satisfactory settlement of those matters which still remain to be finally arranged.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the supplies which you have granted, and for the provision which you have made for several branches of the public service, during that part of the present year which must elapse before a new Parliament can be assembled. I cordially congratulate you on the diminution which has taken place in the expenditure of the country; on the reduction of the charge of the public debt; and on the relief which you have afforded to My people by the repeal of some of those taxes which have heretofore pressed heavily upon them.

You may rely upon My prudent and economical ad-

administration of the supplies which you have placed at My disposal, and upon My readiness to concur in every diminution of the public charges which can be effected consistently with the dignity of the Crown, the maintenance of national faith, and the permanent interests of the country.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I cannot put an end to this Session, and take My leave of the present Parliament, without expressing My cordial thanks for the zeal which you have manifested on so many occasions for the welfare of My people.

You have wisely availed yourselves of the happy opportunity of general peace and internal repose calmly to review many of the laws and judicial establishments of the country, and you have applied such cautious and well-considered reforms as are consistent with the spirit of our venerable institutions, and are calculated to facilitate and expedite the administration of justice.

You have removed the civil disqualifications which affected numerous and important classes of My people.

While I declare on this solemn occasion My fixed intention to maintain to the utmost of My power the Protestant Reformed Religion established by law, let Me at the same time express My earnest hope, that the animosities which have prevailed on account of religious distinctions may be forgotten, and that the decision of Parliament with respect to those distinctions having been irrevocably pronounced, My faithful subjects will unite with Me in advancing the great object contemplated by the Legislature, and in promoting that spirit of domestic concord and peace which constitutes the surest basis of our national strength and happiness.

Then

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's command, said ;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of August next, to be then here holden ; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of August next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of August next : We do for that end publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly ; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Tuesday the tenth day of August next : and We, being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving subjects Our Royal will and pleasure to call a new Parliament : and do hereby further declare, that, with the advice of Our Privy Council, We have given order that Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively, upon notice thereof, forthwith issue out writs in due form, and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: and We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to and give their attendance in Our said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourteenth day of September next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-fourth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have in Our Council thought fit to declare Our pleasure, for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of September next ensuing the date hereof; in order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament: We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the second second day of September next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes ; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presenee of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said city, to take espeeial care to preserve the peace thereof, during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, this twenty-fourth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING..

St. James's-Palace, July 21, 1830.

This day the Lord Bishop of London, and the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, with a Deputation of the Clergy, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty..

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, and the Clergy of London and Westminster, humbly request permission to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the death of our late revered Sovereign, and with the assurance of our loyal and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Under the sorrow occasioned by so severe a domestic, as well as national calamity, your Majesty has the consolation of reflecting, that the confidence and affection with which your Majesty was ever regarded by that lamented Monarch, were repaid by the most cordial attachment, the most undeviating loyalty, and the most dutiful obedience. And your Majesty's subjects are consoled under the loss which they have sustained, by a confident belief that the same principles and feelings which influenced your Majesty's con-

conduct as a Brother, and a Subject, will continue to animate your Royal breast as the Ruler and Father of your people.

As persons entrusted with the sacred charge of instructing the people in the truths and duties of our holy religion, and convinced that, upon the influence of that religion, the real prosperity of this country must depend, we have learned with the most heart-felt joy and gratitude your Majesty's gracious declaration of attachment to the Established Church, and of your Majesty's determination to protect and maintain it.

Persuaded as we are that your Majesty's countenance and favour will never be withdrawn from us as long as we are faithful to our trust, we humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty that, as the servants of Him who came to establish the reign of peace upon earth, it will be our constant endeavour to inculcate upon the Members of our Church the duties of loyalty to their Sovereign, obedience to the laws, and charity towards all men, as parts of the allegiance which they owe to Him who is the King of kings, and Lord of lords.

We humbly pray that, under his favour and protection, your Majesty may long be spared to enjoy, in the society of our most gracious and amiable Queen, the blessings of domestic felicity, and to promote both the spiritual and temporal prosperity of your Majesty's subjects, reigning in the affections of a loyal and united people, and rejoicing in the increase of true religion and virtue.

Signed on behalf of the Clergy, C. J. London.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" I thank you most cordially for this loyal and dutidutiful Address, for your condolence with me on the death of my lamented Brother, and for the assurance of your affectionate interest in the happiness of myself, and of the Queen, my beloved Consort.

“ You may rely upon my steady attachment to the established Church, and upon my anxious endeavours to maintain its privileges, and to extend its legitimate influence.

“ In those endeavours I shall be encouraged and stimulated by many motives: by a deep sense of duty, by a firm belief in the great truths of our holy religion, and by the obligations of those solemn engagements which I shall be called upon to contract in the face of my people.

“ You can prefer no surer claim upon my favour and protection than the faithful execution of that sacred trust which is committed to your charge, and the continuance of your unceasing exertions in the common cause of truth, virtue, and religion.”

St. James's, July 26, 1830.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Entrée-room, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland, Sussex, and Gloucester, His Royal Highness the Prince of Saxe Coburg, the Earl of Westmorland, the Marquess Camden, the Duke of Rutland, the Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Beaufort, the Earl of Lonsdale, the Duke of Wellington, the Earl Bathurst, the Duke of Buckingham, the Marquess of Hertford, the Duke of Dorset, the Duke of Leeds, the Duke of Devonshire, and the Duke of Richmond, attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order; Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms; and Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knight, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At six o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign, in the Throne-room.

The Sovereign being seated on the Throne, and the Knights Companions having taken their respective places, the Prelate of the Order, by His Majesty's command, read a new Statute, declaring His Serene Highness Bernard Reigning Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, Brother of Her Most Excellent Majesty the Queen, a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Prelate then signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that a lineal descendant of His Majesty King George the Second should, in pursuance of the Statute in that behalf made, be elected into the said Most Noble Order.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, were by his Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that His Majesty William, by the Grace of God, King of Wurtemberg, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The King of Wurtemberg was thereupon conducted from the private apartment of the Sovereign in the Chapter-room, between their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, the two Senior Knights Companions present, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion) and by Black Rod.

On entering the Chapter-room, His Majesty was received by the Sovereign and Knights Companions standing, and placed in a chair of state on the right hand of the Sovereign.

The Sovereign was then graciously pleased to announce to the King of Wurtemberg that His Majesty had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Garter on his knee presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, buckled it on the left leg of the King of Wurtemberg, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and the Sovereign, assisted as before, put the same over the shoulder of the King of Wurtemberg, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition.

The Sovereign thereupon gave the accolade to the King of Wurtemberg, and His Majesty also received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions present.

The Chapter being ended, the Knights Companions were again called over by Garter, and with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.

The Sovereign and His Majesty the King of Wurtemberg were then conducted to the private apartment of the Sovereign.

Her Majesty the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cumberland, His Royal Highness Prince George of Cumberland, His Royal Highness Prince Frederick of Prussia, together with the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, the Officers of the Royal Houshold, and many personages of distinction, were present at this august ceremony.

In

In the evening a dinner of state was given by the Sovereign, at which the abovenamed royal, noble, and distinguished persons were present, with the Officers of the Order. During the banquet, Garter King of Arms, by command of the Sovereign, announced that His Majesty drank to the health of His illustrious visitor, His Majesty the King of Wurtemberg, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Sovereign was then pleased to drink to the health of Her Majesty the Queen of Wurtemberg; shortly after which their Majesties arose from table and proceeded to the drawing-room, where they were received by a party of nobility and gentry, specially invited on this occasion.

At the Court at St. James's, July 26, 1830.

The King, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, hath been graciously pleased, by letters patent under His royal sign manual, and the great seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to Installation, and to grant unto His Majesty, William, by the Grace of God, King of Wurtemberg, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Majesty had been formally installed; any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

St. James's-Palace, July 24, 1830.

The King has been pleased to appoint the following Noblemen and Gentlemen to fill the under-mentioned situations in His Majesty's Household:

This day a Deputation from the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which (being on the occasion of His Majesty's Accession) His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, humbly approach your Royal presence, to express our sincere condolence on the demise of your Royal Brother, our late revered Sovereign, and to offer our heartfelt congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms.

We

We call to mind with devout thankfulness to the Supreme Ruler in the kingdoms of the earth, that the reign of His late Majesty was distinguished by the unspeakable blessing of peace ; we rejoice in the remembrance that under his auspicious sway all the useful arts were encouraged and promoted, science and literature were extended in a degree beyond example in the history of nations, reforms were made in the civil and criminal jurisprudence of the country, by which our legal institutions were brought still nearer to the evangelical standard of justice and mercy ; the claims of humanity and Christian benevolence were enforced by the power of this great kingdom, in all the quarters of the globe, and the rights of conscience were invariably respected, and the boundaries of religious liberty greatly enlarged. We are also impelled by gratitude to acknowledge especially, that, under the liberal government of our late beloved Sovereign, the Protestant Dissenters of the United Kingdom were relieved from various disqualifying statutes, and were confirmed by express laws in their rights and privileges.

Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, have ever been devoted in their attachment to your Majesty's illustrious House, under whose gracious rule they have enjoyed blessings far beyond the experience of their forefathers, and they entreat you, Sire, to accept their sincere and ardent congratulations on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

The known disposition of your royal mind assures them of your protection and favour, and they pledge themselves in your august presence, to promote amongst the people committed to their charge, loyalty to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, obedience to the laws, and all those virtues by which, under the Divine Providence, nations are rendered great and prosperous.

Our fervent prayers ascend continually to the King 1830. F f of

of Kings, that it may please him to pour down his merciful blessing upon your Majesty's Government, and to make your Majesty's reign long, peaceful, and happy ; that he may give to your Majesty to rule in the affections of your subjects, throughout the wide extent of your Majesty's dominions, and to receive the satisfaction and delight, dear to the heart of a patriotic Prince, of seeing your people united in the bands of Christian charity, and contented and piously thankful in the enjoyment of the bounties of the supreme Providence, that so your Majesty's happiness may be increased and multiplied in the happiness of your people ; that he may grant that your Majesty and your illustrious Consort, our most gracious Queen, may enjoy together all earthly felicity ; and that he may hear and answer the united supplications of your people, and vouchsafe, that, after a reign of virtuous glory, your Majesty may exchange an earthly for a heavenly crown.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ This public demonstration of your attachment to my Person and Government, is entitled to my warmest thanks.

“ The justice which you have rendered to the memory of my lamented Brother, and the gratitude which you express for the full measure of relief granted during his reign, to the Protestant Dissenters of the United Kingdom, are highly consolatory and satisfactory to my feelings.

“ I place entire confidence in the fulfilment of your engagements, to promote among those of my people who are committed to your spiritual charge, loyalty to the Throne ; and obedience to the Laws ;
and

and I assure you in return, that it will be one of the first objects of my solicitude, to maintain inviolate the civil rights and privileges of all my faithful subjects ”

This day a Deputation from the Religious Society of Friends waited upon His Majesty, to present to his Majesty the following Address, which (being on the occasion of His Majesty's accession), His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

TO WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

May it please the King,

WE, thy dutiful and loyal subjects, Members of the Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, and representing that body in Great Britain and Ireland, are anxious to avail ourselves of the earliest opportunity, after thy accession to the Throne of these Realms, to convey the assurance of a faithful and cordial attachment to our King.

We have sensibly felt the loss of our late beloved Sovereign, thy Brother. We gratefully acknowledge the uniform protection which our Religious Society has experienced from the reigning Family, in our conscientious endeavour to uphold our views of the purity and simplicity of the Gospel of Christ.

We regard the late reign as one happily distinguished in a remarkable manner, by the extension of religious liberty, and the preservation of the blessing of peace, measures truly in accordance with the principles of the Christian Religion, and eminently conducive to the happiness and prosperity of a Nation.

May these blessings be continued under thy paternal government to us and to our children.

Permit us, O King, to intreat thy royal patronage and support on behalf of those various benevolent efforts, so conspicuous in this day, to promote the moral and religious welfare of all classes of thy subjects; may an increase of true piety and of every Christian virtue be known in this kingdom; may the pure and holy precepts of the Christian Religion be exalted in the administration of thy government, and thus may the gospel of life and salvation be commended to this and to surrounding nations; may God Almighty enable the King and his Council to rule in wisdom and righteousness.

Be pleased to accept the warm and sincere desire of a Christian people, that the blessing of Heaven may rest upon thee our King, and upon our Queen, thy Royal Consort, and that, living in the fear of God, you may, through the efficacy of the blood of Christ, and the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit, be fitted, at the solemn close of life, to exchange an earthly crown for one that fadeth not away, eternal in the Heavens.

Signed by us, Members of a Meeting appointed to represent the said Religious Society in Great Britain and Ireland.

This day a Deputation from the Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster waited upon her Majesty, to present to Her Majesty the following Address, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg leave to approach your most gracious presenec, to offer our cordial congratulations to your Majesty on the accession of your Royal Consort, our beloved King, to the Throne of his Ancestors.

We have ever been devoted in loyalty to His Majesty's illustrious House, under whose mild and paternal government we have enjoyed an unexampled degree of happiness, and we rejoice in His Majesty's known character as a pledge of his protection and favour.

It adds to our joy, upon this occasion, that it has pleased the Divine Providence to associate with His Majesty upon the Throne of these Realms, a Queen Consort whose virtues are an earnest that her example will be a signal blessing to the Court and the Nation.

Our sincere and fervent prayers shall never cease to ascend

ascend to the Almighty and most merciful God, by whom Thrones are established, and upon whose favour all happiness depends, that in his good pleasure the life of your most gracious Majesty may be long spared to countenance and encourage all moral and Christian excellence, that your Majesty, and your Majesty's illustrious Consort, may enjoy all holy felicity, and that having lived together as " heirs of the grace of life," you may finally receive the crown that fadeth not away.

This day a Deputation from the Religious Society of Friends waited upon Her Majesty, to present to her Majesty the following Address, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously, and to which Address Her Majesty returned a very gracious Answer :

TO ADELAIDE, QUEEN Consort of WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

May it please the Queen,

HAVING been admitted into the Royal Presence to convey the assurance of a faithful and loyal attachment to our King, on behalf of the Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, in Great Britain and Ireland, we desire to offer to thee our Queen, our sincere congratulations on thy accession to the Throne.

In contemplating the exalted station in which thou art placed by Divine Providence, and the great influence thus intrusted to thy charge, we ask leave earnestly to commend to thy countenance and encouragement those numerous benevolent exertions which are now making in this kingdom to lessen the prevalence of distress and misery, and to promote the cause of religion and morality.

Seeing that it is righteousness which exalted a nation, permit us to express our fervent hope, that thy Royal influence may be extensively used on behalf of Christian piety and virtue, desiring, as we do, that, under the blessing of God, thou mayest be made an honoured instrument in his hands, in exalting in this, our beloved country, the high standard of purity

purity and holiness which is set before us in the Gospel of our blessed Saviour.

Be pleased to accept the assurance of our lively interest in thy happiness and welfare. May the grace of God be abundantly poured upon thee, our Queen, whilst in this life, and mayst thou at its solemn close be favoured with a well-grounded hope of an admission into life eternal, through that redemption which comes by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Signed by us, Members of a Meeting appointed to represent the said Religious Society in Great Britain and Ireland.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 17, 1830.

Windsor Castle, August 9, 1830.

THIS day the Mayor and a Deputation of the Corporation of the Borough of New Windsor, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects and servants, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, most humbly presume to approach your Majesty, with our cordial and respectful congratulations on your Majesty's arrival within the walls of your Royal Palace of Windsor, the favoured abode of a long race of Kings ; and to renew to your Majesty the strongest assurances of our devoted and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Entertaining a lively sense of the condescension with which your Majesty was pleased, on a former occasion, to honour us, by permitting your name to be enrolled amongst our Burgesses as High Steward of this Borough ; and deeply interested, from every motive of gratitude, as well as duty, in any circumstance which can afford satisfaction to your Royal mind, we regard, with more than ordinary delight, the happy auspices under which your Majesty has commenced your residence at this superb seat of your Ancestors, recently embellished under the tasteful direction of that venerated Monarch, whose loss (in common with your Majesty) we so deeply deplore, and become the appropriate emblem of the British Monarchy, alike in its fair proportions, its strength, its antiquity, and its grandeur.

Associated as is the “ proud Keep of Windsor” with the recollection of the heroic deeds of many of our early Kings, and rendered the depository of the battle trophies, which inscribe the glorious names of Marlborough and of Wellington, indelibly in the brightest pages of our history, and record the distinguished valour of British arms in modern times ; we cannot avoid felicitating your Majesty on your accession to the Crown of these Realms at a period when the spirit of peace and internal tranquillity hovers around the British Throne, and which, but for the recent convulsion in a neighbouring kingdom, had promised, for a lengthened period, to pervade the whole Continent of Europe.

We feel persuaded, Sire, that your Majesty, who has ever evinced a heart so peculiarly English, and has ever expressed an ardent attachment to the Laws and Constitution of the Country, which balance so admirably the prerogatives of the Crown with the rights and liberties of your people, will not fail to employ your leisure from the cares of Government in the fullest exercise of the many virtues and amiable qualities with which your Majesty is so eminently endowed ; in illustrating the advantages of domestic happiness ; in the patronage of the arts ; and in cultivating, by your condescending and endearing manners, ers, that affectionate attachment of all classes of your subjects, which will add a lustre to the diadem adorning your Majesty's brow.

It is our fervent prayer, Sire, that your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, may long live in the enjoyment of every blessing which a domestic life is capable of affording, shedding around you the influence of your blight example; may your Majesty, the patron of honour, of virtue, and of religion, be long preserved to us to promote the best interests of this great empire in the full enjoyment of its present tranquillity; and may your Majesty's Throne be ever cemented by a King's best glory, the love and veneration of a people at once loyal, happy, and free.

Given at a Court of Common Council, held at the Guildhall in and for the said Borough, this 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830, and in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

James Church, Mayor.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I thank you most sincerely for your cordial congratulations on my arrival within the walls of this ancient Castle.

“ The assurances of your respect for the memory of my lamented Brother, of your loyalty and attachment to my Person and Government, and of your anxious wishes for my happiness, and that of the Queen, my beloved Consort, have given me the greatest satisfaction.

“ I shall always feel the warmest interest in the prosperity of your ancient and loyal Borough.”

Windsor Castle, August 9, 1830.

This day the Mayor and a Deputation of the Coporation of the Borough of New Windsor, waited upon Her Majesty to present to Her Majesty the following Address, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, venture humbly to offer to your Majesty the expression of our sincere and dutiful congratulations on the arrival of your Majesty at the Castle of Windsor.

Your Majesty's devoted servants rejoice, in common with their fellow subjects, in the anticipated blessings which the benignant influence of your Majesty's station and character promises to society, and we hail with rapture the approach of a Princess, whose benevolence, already abundantly displayed, awakens the recollection of those days when this chosen seat of Royalty was adorned by the presence of our revered Monarch George the Third, and his illustrious Consort, the domestic virtues of whose extended reign live recorded in the hearts of a grateful people, as the standard of unaffected piety and private worth.

While we presume to offer to our gracious Sovereign, and to yourself, our respectful condolence upon the loss which your Majesties have recently sustained, we cannot withhold the tribute of our gratitude titude to the memory of departed greatness, by whose taste and munificence this favoured Town has been graced with an edifice worthy of the honour of your choice.

That your Majesties may long live in the peaceful enjoyment of the attachment and devotion which your private virtues, no less than your Regal station, must always command from a loyal, brave, and affectionate people, is the ardent and constant prayer of your Majesty's most faithful subjects and servants.

Given at a Court of Common Council, held at the Guildhall, in and for the said Borough, this 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830, and in the first year of His Majesty's reign.
James Church, Mayor.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I am much gratified by the expression of your satisfaction on my arrival at the Castle of Windsor, and I thank you sincerely for the assurances of your attachment to the King, and to me, and of your good wishes for our joint welfare and happiness.

"I am sensible that the memory of the Monarch, whose loss we deplore, must ever be connected with this splendid monument of his taste, and with the benefits which your ancient and loyal Borough derives from his munificence, and I assure you that your continued enjoyment of those benefits, and your prosperity, will engage my cordial interest."

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 27,
1830.

At the Court at St. James's, the 25th day of August 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

'THIS day the Right Honourable John Earl of Clare was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable George Earl of Aberdeen one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, his Lordship was this day, by His Majesty's command, sworn one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

It is this day ordered, by His Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Tuesday the fourteenth day of September next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of October next ;

And also for proroguing the Convocations of Canterbury and York, which were appointed to meet on Wednesday the fifteenth day of September next, to Wednesday the twenty-seventh day of October next.

By

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by the advice of Our Council, We did ordain a certain Parliament to be holden at Our City of Westminster, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of September next; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that Our said Parliament shall be prorogued, from the said fourteenth day of September next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of October next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty-sixth day of October next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-sixth day of October next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Foreign-Office, August 26, 1830.

The King has been pleased to approve of Fletcher Wilson, Esq. as Consul General in London for His Majesty the King of Denmark.

THIS day a Deputation of the Inhabitants and Visitors of Brighthelmston had the honour to wait upon the King to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of Brighthelmston, humbly approach your Majesty, with the expression of our joy, upon being permitted to welcome your Majesty's arrival amongst us.

When our late Sovereign first visited Brighthelmston, it was a place of comparatively small importance. Your Majesty is now surrounded by forty thousand of your subjects. It may be said, therefore, that Brighthelmston almost owed its birth to the patronage of King George the fourth ; and the many local charities which have sprung up under his countenance, are standing memorials of the paternal care with which His Majesty watched over the interests of this town.

Feeling, therefore, how much we owe to the residence of a Sovereign, we hail, with sentiments of the highest delight, the continuance of Royal favour towards us. It is our fervent prayer that your Majesty, with your gracious Consort, may long experience the benefit of our salubrious climate; and that Almighty God may bless your Majesty with increase of years, of honour, and of happiness.
1830. R r jesty,

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, and for the affectionate terms in which you welcome my arrival amongst you.

“ I have long felt very partial to Brighthelmston ; I have watched with great satisfaction its increasing prosperity ; and sensible as I am of the advantage which its inhabitants derived from the paternal care and the protection of the late King, my lamented Brother, and of their claims to the interest which he took in their welfare, it shall be my study to secure to them the continuance of those benefits, which must render his memory so dear to them.”

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of Brighthelmston, desire humbly and affectionately to express, as with one heart, the feeling which pervades all classes, upon welcoming the entrance of a Queen into this Palace.

THE following Address from the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, West-

Westminster, has been presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously, and to return the subjoined Answer through Sir Herbert Taylor, acting in the absence of Earl Howe, Her Majesty's Chamberlain :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH feelings of no common happiness, we, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, beg to offer our humble congratulations to your Majesty, as Queen Consort of the Throne of these dominions. The sincerity of our homage flows from our persuasion of your Majesty's personal virtues; and we rejoice that those excellent principles, which are already known and deeply felt by all classes of His Majesty's subjects, have now a larger space for the beneficial display of so high an example and its moral effects.

That your Majesty's life may be long and happy, and a blessing to yourself as well as to the nation at large, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's humble and faithful servants.

This day the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin, with a Deputation from that City, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your Majesty's antient and loyal city of Dublin, approach your Majesty with every sentiment of respect and veneration.

We join in the universal sympathy of the nation, and cordially condole with your Majesty upon the severe affliction which has befallen your Majesty, in common with all classes of society, in the death of our late revered and beloved Monarch. His Majesty governed the United Kingdom during one of the most eventful and brilliant periods of British History. He entered upon his high functions amidst the glories of a war which has established this empire in the highest rank of nations ; a long and salutary peace shed a milder lustre upon his latter years, and now that he hath finished his course of earthly splendour, we trust in the mercy of Almighty God that he has through a Saviour's merits exchanged his temporal Crown for one eternal in the heavens.

We beseech your Majesty to accept our most dutiful congratulations upon your auspicious accession to the Throne of these Realms ; we have to assure your Majesty that we carefully cherish the principles of attachment and fidelity to the Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity which have from time immemorial distinguished our Corporation, and entirely confiding, Sire, in your Majesty's most gracious declaration, that you will maintain the reformed religion established by law, and protect the rights and liberties of your subjects ; we earnestly pray the King of Kings to grant your Majesty health and long life to reign over an enlightened, a free, and a happy people.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the common seal of said city to be hereunto affixed, this 23d day of July 1830.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I return you my cordial thanks for this loyal and dutiful Address.

“ The justice which it renders to the memory of the late King, my lamented Brother, and the assurance which it conveys of affectionate attachment to my Person and Government, are most gratifying to my feelings.

“ Be assured that I will scrupulously fulfil the sacred engagements into which I entered on my accession to the Throne, and that my anxious endeavours are unceasingly directed to promote the happiness of all parts of my Dominions, and of all classes of my subjects.

“ I know that my faithful city of Dublin, conspicuous at all times for its loyalty, will second my efforts to promote the strength, the prosperity, and the concord of the United Kingdom.”

St. James's-Palace, October 27, 1830.

This day the Reverend Dr. Singer, Moderator; the Reverend Dr. Macknight, of Edinburgh; the Reverend Dr. Cook, of Saint Andrew's; the Reverend Dr. Lee, of Edinburgh; the Reverend Dr. Chalmers, of Edinburgh; Sir John Connel, Advocate, Procurator for the Church; Sir Henry Jardine, of the Exchequer, Edinburgh; George Sinclair, Esq. younger, of Ulbster; William Paul, Esq.; the Duke of Gordon; and John J. Hope Johnstone, Esq. of Annandale; waited upon His Majesty, to present to His Majesty the following Address from the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, met in the Commission, beg leave, with every sentiment of high respect and warm attachment, to condole with your Majesty on the lamented death of our late illustrious and beloved Sovereign; an event which has placed these united kingdoms in the deepest mourning, and has also drawn forth warm regret and sympathy from other nations.

Looking back on the memorable and splendid events of the late reign, on the wisdom and firmness, under very trying circumstances, for which it will long continue to be distinguished, together with the love of moderation and peace which was eminently conspicuous down to its close; we also cordially cherish the recollection of our late Sovereign's respect for,

for, and of his gracious bounty towards, the religious institutions of his kingdom; his munificent patronage of science and literature, and of the arts, which have thrown a lustre over his reign; and the fervency of those prayers which were put up for a life so precious and so endeared to his people during his last sufferings. While we desire humbly to submit to the unerring will of God, we now beg leave to present our warmest and most respectful congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these kingdoms. We are grateful to God for his goodness to this highly favoured and great nation, in raising up a Sovereign whose avowed and declared purposes are in such perfect accordance with the dearest wishes and best interests of his people; as well as with the mild paternal spirit of that government which, under your Majesty's revered ancestors, has been so greatly blessed to these united kingdoms. We cannot think without profound veneration of that race of Princes who have long swayed the sceptre of these realms on principles friendly to civil and religious liberty, and who have been the constitutional supporters and the conscientious defenders of the Protestant reformed Churches established by law, not merely as bulwarks for the support of the Throne, but also for the maintenance of the high interests of true religion, associated with that righteousness which exalteth a nation.

Cordially attached as we are, and as the Church of Scotland, which we represent, has ever been, to your Majesty's revered illustrious House, and fully relying on that solemn constitutional pledge which your Majesty has been pleased to give, for maintaining inviolably the rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland, and the invaluable blessings of the Protestant faith in these united kingdoms; we will perform with delight that high duty, which we deem sacred, of cherishing in the hearts of an enlightened and religious people, a spirit of respect and loyalty towards your

your Majesty, and of grateful attachment to your Royal House.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may long preserve and abundantly bless your Majesty's life and reign, and that the divine grace and blessing may rest on the head of your Royal Consort, the Queen, whom Providence hath given to afford a pattern of every conjugal and princely virtue ; also, that the blessings of heaven may descend on all the Members of the Royal Family, is the united, most fervent, and affectionate prayer of your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in name and presence, and by appointment of the Commission of the Church, by William Singer, Moderator.

Edinburgh, August 11, 1830.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address, condoling with me on the demise of my lamented Brother, and congratulating me on my accession to the Throne of my Ancestors.

“ Be assured of my determination to maintain your National Church in the possession of all its rights and privileges.

“ I regard that Church as one of the great defences of religion and of religious liberty, and I well know the zeal by which its Ministers are actuated in the discharge of their spiritual duties, and in inculcating on the minds of those committed to their charge the principles of obedience to the laws and loyalty to the Throne.

“ I shall perform a duty most gratifying to my feel-

feelings by scrupulously observing the solemn engagement into which I have entered, to protect and support the Church of Scotland."

St. James's-Palace, November 2, 1830.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock ; and, having alighted from the state coach, was received at the portico by the Great Officers of State and others, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having his hat on his head, the procession moved into the House in the usual order.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is with great satisfaction that I meet you in Parliament, and that I am enabled, in the present conjuncture, to recur to your advice.

Since the dissolution of the late Parliament, events of deep interest and importance have occurred on the Continent of Europe.

The Elder Branch of the House of Bourbon no longer reigns in France, and the Duke of Orleans has been called to the Throne by the title of King of the French.

Having received from the new Sovereign a declaration of his earnest desire to cultivate the good understanding, and to maintain inviolate all the engagements subsisting with this Country, I did not he-

hesitate to continue My diplomatic relations and friendly intercourse with the French Court.

I have witnessed, with deep regret, the state of affairs in the Low Countries.

I lament that the enlightened administration of the King should not have preserved his dominions from revolt; and that the wise and prudent measure of submitting the desires and the complaints of his people to the deliberations of an extraordinary meeting of the States General should have led to no satisfactory result. I am endeavouring, in concert with My Allies, to devise such means of restoring tranquillity as may be compatible with the welfare and good government of the Netherlands, and with the future security of other States.

Apparances of tumult and disorder have produced uneasiness in different parts of Europe; but the assurances of a friendly disposition, which I continue to receive from all Foreign Powers, justify the expectation that I shall be enabled to preserve for My people the blessings of peace.

Impressed at all times with the necessity of respecting the faith of national engagements, I am persuaded that My determination to maintain, in conjunction with My Allies, those general Treaties by which the political system of Europe has been established, will offer the best security for the repose of the world.

I have not yet accredited My Ambassador to the Court of Lisbon; but the Portuguese Government having determined to perform a great act of justice and humanity, by the grant of a general amnesty, I think that the time may shortly arrive when the interests of My subjects will demand a renewal of those relations which had so long existed between the two countries.

I am impelled, by the deep solicitude which I feel for the welfare of My people, to recommend to your immediate consideration the provisions which it may be

be advisable to make for the exercise of the Royal Authority, in case that it should please Almighty God to terminate My life before My successor shall have arrived at years of maturity.

I shall be prepared to concur with you in the adoption of those measures which may appear best calculated to maintain unimpaired the stability and dignity of the Crown, and thereby to strengthen the securities by which the civil and religious liberties of My people are guarded.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the estimates for those services of the present year for which the last Parliament did not fully provide to be forthwith laid before you. The estimates for the ensuing year will be prepared with that strict regard to economy which I am determined to enforce in every branch of the public expenditure.

By the demise of My lamented Brother, the late King, the Civil List revenue has expired.

I place without reserve at your disposal My interest in the hereditary revenues, and in those funds which may be derived from any droits of the Crown or Admiralty, from the West India duties, or from any casual revenues, either in My foreign possessions or in the United Kingdom.

In surrendering to you My interest in revenues which have in former settlements of the Civil List been reserved to the Crown, I rejoice in the opportunity of evincing My entire reliance on your dutiful attachment, and My confidence that you will cheerfully provide all that may be necessary for the support of the Civil Government, and the honour and dignity of My Crown.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I deeply lament that in some districts of the country the property of My subjects has been endan-

dangered by combinations for the destruction of machinery; and that serious losses have been sustained through the acts of wicked incendiaries.

I cannot view without grief and indignation the efforts which are industriously made to excite among My people a spirit of discontent and disaffection, and to disturb the concord which happily prevails between those parts of My dominions, the union of which is essential to their common strength and common happiness.

I am determined to exert to the utmost of My power all the means which the Law and the Constitution have placed at My disposal, for the punishment of sedition, and for the prompt suppression of outrage and disorder.

Amidst all the difficulties of the present conjuncture, I reflect with the highest satisfaction on the loyalty and affectionate attachment of the great body of My people.

I am confident that they justly appreciate the full advantage of that happy form of government, under which, through the favour of Divine Providence, this country has enjoyed for a long succession of years a greater share of internal peace, of commercial prosperity, of true liberty, of all that constitutes social happiness, than has fallen to the lot of any other country of the world. It is the great object of My life to preserve these blessings to My people, and to transmit them unimpaired to posterity; and I am animated in the discharge of the sacred duty which is committed to Me, by the firmest reliance on the wisdom of Parliament, and on the cordial support of My faithful and loyal subjects.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods, the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever, and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce
" and

“ and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country:”

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in Him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-

twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified :

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Him as aforesaid, by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked :

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods the produce of those States, and may export goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

At the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of November 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled " An Act to regulate the trade
" of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other

other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act :

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Sydney, in the island of Cape Breton, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Sydney, in the island of Cape Breton, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

St. James's Palace, November 5, 1830.

This day His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, with a Deputation from the Clergy of the Pro-

Province of Canterbury, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Archbishop and Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, most humbly desire permission to approach your Majesty with hearty assurances of our affection and loyalty, and congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this Realm.

At the same time we entreat your Majesty to accept the expression of our sincere condolence on the demise of the late King, whose adherence to the sound constitutional principles hereditary in his illustrious family, was on all occasions evinced by the mildness and equity of his government, his regard to the rights of his subjects, and his attachment to our ancient institutions in church and state.

Having been accustomed to look up for protection to the King, as being, under God, the chief defender of our Apostolic faith, we gladly embrace this opportunity of expressing our gratitude for the assurances which your Majesty has repeatedly been pleased to give of belief in the doctrines and concern for the interests of our holy religion, of respect for the ordinances of the church, determination to uphold her rights, and favourable disposition towards her ministers.

Nor can we advert without lively satisfaction to the proclamation issued by your Majesty, declaring your Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of vice, profaneness, and immorality, and to distinguish persons of piety and virtue by marks of your Royal favour.

The

The confidence inspired by the declaration of your Majesty's sentiments on these important points, is farther increased when we reflect on the exemplary virtues of the illustrious partner of your Throne. In contemplating this bright pattern of feminine excellence in the person of Her Majesty, we are led to anticipate the happiest consequences from its effects on the character of her sex, more especially in that elevated rank, where it is most exposed to observation, and has the greatest influence on society.

To these circumstances we attach the highest importance, whether we consider the attacks so frequently made on the faith, the discipline, and the government of the church, which never stood more in need of support and protection than at the present time, or the disregard to the commandments of God, and the laws of the land, which we fear is rapidly spreading, with unspeakable injury, to the principles of the whole population, and more especially of the young and ignorant. In regard, Sir, to this latter point, we are satisfied that, if all persons of rank and authority would shew by their conduct a sincere respect for religion, their example would greatly contribute to the general reformation of manners, as well by its immediate influence on public opinion, as by its tendency to promote the due execution of the laws against open impiety and profligacy, the dissemination of licentious publications, and the profanation of the Lord's day.

Yet, Sir, we are sensible that the maintenance of true religion and virtue, so essential to social order, and the happiness of all classes, must principally depend on the clergy, on the soundness of their faith, the efficacy of their teaching, and the holiness of their lives : and we should esteem ourselves wholly unworthy of the privileges assured to the church, with a view to the general good, if we ceased to labour with assiduous zeal in the performance of our sacred sacred duties. It will, therefore, be our constant endeavour, not only to instruct, reprove, and exhort with all diligence and earnestness in the ordinary exercise of our ministry, but to assist in the diffusion of truth, the advancement of piety, the discouragement of enthusiasm, and the reformation of vice, wherever our influence extends. And whilst, as in duty bound, we stand forward in defence of the faith, and the refutation of erroneous doctrines, we shall strive to regulate our temper and conduct by the laws of Christian charity respecting the motives of honest opponents, replying with meekness and gentleness to adversaries of a different character, and allowing liberty of conscience to all men

If, Sir, there are any among us, who have disgraced their holy profession by scandalous neglect of their duties, or offences against morality, we can truly affirm that their conduct is regarded with grief and abhorrence by the great body of the clergy; and we look forward with satisfaction to the result of the enquiry now in progress, under your Majesty's sanction, into the state of the ecclesiastical law, in the confidence that effectual provision will be made for the speedy correction of such enormities in future.

In conclusion, we venture to assure your Majesty, that, as well in our collective capacity, as in our several stations in the church, we shall invariably make it our object, so to perform our duties as to deserve the protection of our Sovereign, and the approbation of all good men. And we trust that, through the blessing of the Almighty on our labours, this kingdom may be for ever preserved from those visitations of God's displeasure, which are, sooner or later, occasioned by the decay of piety and corruption of morals. We may, then, with all humility hope for acceptance, when we offer up our prayers on behalf of your Majesty, that the spirit of wisdom and strength, through whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice, may direct and prosper your Majesty's counsels, and dispose the hearts of your people to willing obedience, from a sense of religious obligation, veneration for lawful authority, and gratitude for the blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal government.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" I cordially thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address.

" The sentiments which it expresses, and the assurance which it conveys, of your affectionate attachment to my Person, and to that of my beloved Consort the Queen, are most acceptable to me, and most gratifying to my feelings.

" You may rely on my constant favour and protection, and on my zealous co-operation in all your efforts to promote the great cause of piety, of morality, and religious truth.

" I consider the Established Church one of the main defences of the civil and religious liberties of my people,—and I am bound by the firmest conviction of their importance, as well as by the most solemn engagements, to support and defend the rights and privileges of the church."

This day His Majesty was pleased to invest Walter Francis Duke of Buccleugh with the ensigns of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

His Majesty having signed the several instruments for that purpose, which were, previously to the ceremony, presented to the Sovereign by Robert Quarme, Quarme, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod, in the absence of the Secretary,

The Duke of Buccleugh was called into the royal presence, being preceded by His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex, and supported by the Earl of Cathcart and the Viscount Melville, the two Senior Knights present.

Upon entering into the royal presence, with the usual reverences, the Duke of Buccleugh was presented by the said two Knights, and kneeling down, was knighted by the King with the Sword of State, his Grace having kissed His Majesty's hand, rose up, when the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod administered the oath to his Grace; then Green Rod, kneeling, presented the ensigns of the Order, upon a crimson velvet cushion, to the King, who put the ribband over the Duke's left shoulder; and his Grace, having again had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand, withdrew, with the usual reverences, in the same manner in which he had entered.

The ceremony was performed in the King's Closet, several of the Great Officers of State and of the Court being present.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Sir William Henry Freemantle, K. H. G. Deputy Ranger of Windsor Great Park.

Admiralty Office, 23d November, 1830.

Captain Gordon, of His Majesty's Ship Atholl, has transmitted to the Right Honourable John Wilson Croker, a Letter from Commander William Broughton, of His Majesty's Sloop Primrose, to Captain Gordon, dated at the Island of Ascension, 5th October 1830, of which the following is an extract :

“Proceeding in execution of your orders of the 3d September, I had the good fortune to fall in at 11. 30. P. M. on the 6th of that month, with the Spanish ship Velos Passagera, Jose Antonio de la Vega Master, from Wydah, bound to Havannah, pierced for 28 guns, but having only 20 mounted; and from the Officer whom I sent to board her not being allowed to examine her below, as usual, I concluded she had slaves on board. Finding I had much the advantage of her in sailing, and wishing to avoid the effusion of blood by a night action with a vessel crowded with

with slaves, I remained by her until morning, when, being within hail, and still resolutely refused permission to search her, we opened our fire, which she returned immediately, the ships nearly touching each other; after the second broadside, we laid her on board, and in ten minutes carried her, with a loss on our side of 3 killed, and 12 wounded; the Velos had 46 killed, and 20 wounded, out of a crew of, as near as I could ascertain, 150 men, of different nations, and having on board 555 slaves, 5 of whom were killed.

Being myself wounded in the act of boarding, my place was ably taken by Lieutenant Butterfield, seconded by Acting Lieutenant Foley, Mr. Fraser, Acting Master, and Mr. Bentham, Midshipman, to each of whom I feel deeply indebted for their zealous exertions; as also to Mr. Williamson, Acting Purser, who rendered his services on deck during the action: and I feel myself called upon to notice in particular the conduct of the Acting Surgeon, Mr. Lane, who, though dangerously ill, exerted himself in an extraordinary manner in his attention to the wounded, having no Assistant on board. I cannot speak too highly in praise of the gallantry and good conduct of the Warrant and Petty Officers and Ship's Company, who distinguished themselves not only for their steadiness in action, but for their great personal exertions in refitting the two ships afterwards.

I enclose a list of killed and wounded."

Return of Killed and Wounded.

Killed.

James Graham, seaman; William Bunker, marine;
Benjamin Allen, marine.

Wounded.

Commander Broughton, severly ; Mr. Fraser, Master, severly ; Mr. Bentham, Midshipman, slightly ; Mr. Watts, boatswain, dangerously ; Mark Denick, marine, dangerously ; George Martin, seaman, slightly ; Henry Amery, seaman, severly ; William Rust, seaman, slightly ; John Compton, seaman, slightly ; John Owens, seaman, slightly ; Thomas Walker, marine, severly ; Henry Stephens, marine, slightly.

N. B. I am happy to add that Commander Broughton, and the Officers who were wounded, are quite recovered, with the exception of Mr. Watts, the boatswain, who is still in a dangerous state.

(Signed) A. GORDON, Captain.

FROM THE SUPPLEMENT

LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 23,
1830.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS great multitudes of lawless and disorderly persons have for some time passed, assembled themselves together, in a riotous and tumultuous manner, in the counties of Wilts, Kent, Sussex, Surrey, Hants, and Berks; and for the purposes of compelling their employers to comply with certain regulations prescribed by themselves, with respect to the wages to be paid for their labour, have had recourse to measures of force and violence, and have actually committed various acts of outrage in different ferent parts of the counties above-mentioned, whereby the property of many of Our good Subjects has in several instances been wholly destroyed, and their lives and properties are still greatly endangered.

We, therefore, being duly sensible of the mischievous consequences which must inevitably ensue, as well to the peace of the Kingdom, as to the lives and properties of Our Subjects, from such wicked and illegal practices, if they go unpunished; and being firmly resolved to cause the laws to be put in execution for the punishment of such offenders, have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby strictly commanding all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and all other Civil Officers whatsoever, within the said counties of Wilts, Kent, Sussex, Surrey, Hants, and Berks, that they do use their utmost endeavours to discover, apprehend, and bring to justice, the persons concerned in the riotous proceedings above-mentioned.

And as a further inducement to discover the said offenders, we do hereby promise and declare that any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the authors, abettors, or perpetrators of any of the outrages above-mentioned, so that they, or any of them, may be duly convicted thereof, shall be entitled to the sum of FIFTY POUNDS for each and every person who shall be so convicted, and shall also receive Our most gracious pardon for the said offence, in case the person making such discovery as aforesaid shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same.

And whereas certain wicked incendiaries have secretly by fire, in many parts of the said counties, destroyed the corn, hay, buildings, and other property of Our subjects, We do hereby promise and declare, that any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and ap-apprehended, the authors of the said fires, so that they, or any of them, may be duly convicted thereof, shall be entitled to the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS for each and every person who shall be so convicted, and shall also receive Our most gracious pardon (except the actual perpetrator of any of the said fires), in case the person making such discovery shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same.

And the Lords Commissioners of our Treasury are hereby required to make payment accordingly of the said rewards.

Given at our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty, in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 23, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 1st of December next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 1st of December next, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday next the 29th instant, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee will have their names distinctly written upon the card delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

--	---	---

The Bishop of Salisbury, The Bishop of Winches-
Chancellor of the Order. ter, Prelate of the Order.

THE SOVEREIGN.

The

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Chaneellor, standing on the left hand of His Majesty, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the vaeant stall in the Royal Chapel of St. George, at Windsor, be filled; and as by the statutes none but a Knight can be eleted, His Graee John Duke of Bedford was introduced into the Royal presence, preceded by Garter and Black Rod, and was knighted by His Majesty with the Sword of State, after which His Grace, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chaneellor, were by his Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble John Duke of Bedford had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Grace was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Marquess of Exeter and the Duke of Richmond, the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod. The Duke of Bedford kneeling near the Sovereign, and Garter presenting on his knee the Garter, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, the two senior Knights Companions, buckled it on his Grace's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the Ribband with the George, and His Majesty, with the assistance of the said two senior Knights Companions, put the same over the Duke's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. His Grace having kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by command of the Sovereign, called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made back to the Royal Closet, in the same order as before.

At the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of December 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Most Noble Ulick Marquess of Clanricarde and the Right Honourable Robert Grosvenor were, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

At the Court at St. James's, December 1, 1830.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Admiral Sir James Hawkins Whitshed, and Admiral Sir Philip-Charles Henderson Durham, with the ensigns of Knights Grand Crosses of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

The following Knights Grand Crosses, in their mantles and collars of the Order, assembled at St. James's-Palace, viz. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; His Royal Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg; His Royal Highness the Prince of Orange; Sir Alured Clarke; Sir James Saumarez, Bart.; the Duke of Wellington; the Earl of Northesk; Viscount Strangford; Viscount Beresford; Lord Hill; the Honourable Sir Edward Paget; Sir John Doyle, Bart.; the Marquess of Anglesey; Sir James Kempt; the Right Honourable Sir George Cockburn; the Earl of Rosslyn; and the Duke of Gordon; attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Dean of Westminster, Dean of the Order; Sir George Nayler, Knt. Genealogist of the Order; Algernon Greville, Esq. Bath King of Arms; Captain Michael Scymour, R. N. Register and Secretary of the Order; and George-Frederick Beltz, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Order.

At half past one o'clock, the Knights Grand Crosses and Officers of the Order proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room.

Then, by His Majesty's command, Admiral Sir James-Hawkins Whitshed was introduced into the presence, between the two junior Knights Grand Crosses present, preceded by Bath King of Arms, bearing the ribband, badge, and star of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion, and by the Gentleman Usher of the Order.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, received thereupon the ribband and badge from Bath King of Arms, and presented them to the Sovereign, and Sir James-Hawkins Whitshed kneeling, His Majesty put the same over the Admiral's right shoulder; Sir James rising, had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and, having received from His Majesty the star of the Order, withdrew.

Then Admiral Sir Philip-Charles Henderson Durham, was introduced with the like ceremony, and invested; and having kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the star of the Order from His Majesty, withdrew.

The Knights Grand Crosses were then called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

Admiral Sir James Hawkins Whitshed and Admiral Sir Philip-Charles Henderson Durham, were not knighted by His Majesty upon this occasion, having already had that honour conferred upon them.

St. James's, December 1, 1830.

This day His Majesty was pleased to invest Vice-Admiral Sir Willoughby-Thomas Lake with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of His Majesty Vice-Admiral Sir Willoughby-Thomas Lake was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Majesty, preceded by Sir George Naylor (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders) bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order, and by William Woods, Esq. the Secretary to the Knights Commanders.

The

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to His Majesty, and Sir Willoughby-Thomas Lake kneeling, was knighted therewith. after which he had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented the same to the Sovereign, who was pleased to invest Sir Willoughby-Thomas Lake with the same. The Vice-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

BOROUGH OF CALNE.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Edmund Hopkinson, Esquire, and Edward Cheney, Esquire, complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Calne, in the county of Wilts, have this day reported to the House of Commons, — That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the merits of the petition did depend in part upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the said Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners and the Counsel for the sitting Members, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows:—“ That the right of election is in “ the ancient Burgesses only, such ancient Burgesses “ being the inhabitant householders residing of the said “ borough duly sworn:”—That the Counsel for the sitting Members delivered in a statement as follows:—“ That the right of election of Burgesses to “ serve in Parliament for this borough, is in the an- “ cient Burgesses of the said borough only, meaning “ thereby the Select Body of the Corporation:”—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough,—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Members, the said Committee have determined that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—That the said Committee have determined, that the right of election

for

for the said borough, is in the ancient Burgesses of the said borough only ; meaning by the term ancient Burgesses, Burgesses duly elected and sworn according to the ancient constitution of the borough of Calne :

And I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “ An Act to “ consolidate and amend the laws relating to the “ trial of controverted elections, or returns of

BOROUGH OF MARLBOROUGH.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Sir Alexander Malet, Baronet, and John Mirehouse, Esq. complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Marlborough, in the county of Wilts, have this day reported to the House of Commons,—That it appeared to the said Select Committee that the merits of the petition did depend, in part, upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the said Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners, and the Counsel for the sitting Members, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended ; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows :—“ That the right of election is “ in the Mayor and Burgesses only, such Burgesses “ being

“ being persons holding in and residing in the bo“ rough, and having been sworn, or having demanded
 “ to be sworn:”—That the Counsel for the sitting Members delivered in a statement as follows:—“ That
 “ the right of election of Members to serve in Parlia“ ment for the borough of Marlborough, in the county
 “ of Wilts, is in the Mayor and Burgesses only:”— That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Members, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is the right of election for the said borough:

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the ninth year of

SUPPLEMENT
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 24,
1830

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th of December 1830,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable
Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare Forms of Prayers to Almighty God, on account of the troubled state of certain parts of the United Kingdom :

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of the said Forms of Prayers, that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in all the Cathedral, Collegiate and Parochial Churches and Chapels throughout those parts of the United Kingdom, called England and Ireland, as soon as the Ministers thereof may receive the same.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th of
December 1830,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable
 Privy Council.

It is this day ordered by their Lordships, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion, protected and allowed by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, chap. 7, intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those " of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great " Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their " religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy
 " of the Church of England, and for the repealing
 " the Act, passed in the Parliament of Scotland,
 " intituled 'An Act against irregular baptisms and
 " marriages,' " do, at some time during the exercise of the Divine Service in such respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, put up their Prayers to Almighty God, on account of the troubled state of certain parts of the United Kingdom.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 28, 1830.

At the Court at Brighton, the 27th day of December 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled " An Act to suspend, until the end " of the next session of Parliament, the making " of lists and the ballots and enrolments of the " militia of the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that any proceedings shall be had at any time before the expiration of such period as aforesaid, either for the giving of notices and making returns and preparing lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol men for the filling up vacancies in the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, as His Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order, all such proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the provisions of the Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and return of, lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of men to supply any vacancies in the militia, and holding general and sub-division meetings

ings for such purpose, at such time respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any directions given in pursuance thereof to the Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy-Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places, in Great Britain, or to the Governors and Deputy-Governors of counties and places in Ireland, or to the Warden and Special Deputy-Wardens of the Stannaries, and all the provisions of the several Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the militia and corps of miners of Cornwall and Devon, shall, upon any such order and direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full force, and be carried into execution at the period specified in such order or direction as aforesaid, with all such penalties and forfeitures for any neglect thereof, as fully as if such periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such militia and miners: And whereas it is deemed expedient that proceedings should now be had for holding general and sub-division meetings, for the giving notices, and making returns and preparing lists; and also for the proceeding to hallot and enrol men for filling up vacancies in the militia of Great Britain, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that within fourteen days in England, and three weeks in Scotland, after the date of this Order, the Lord Lieutenants and Vice Lieutenants in the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places in Great Britain, shall summon, or cause to be summoned, general meetings for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Acts now in force in England and Scotland respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and return of lists, and for ballotting and enrolling men to supply any vacancies in the militia, within the several periods prescribed by the Acts in that behalf made and provided for the execution of these proceedings

re-

respectively, and under all the penalties and forfeitures for the neglect thereof, as are directed by the said Acts respectively.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Westminster, December 23, 1830.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to apply the sum of one million eight hundred and fifty thousand pounds out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and to appropriate the supplies granted in this session of Parliament.

An Act to provide for the administration of the Government in case the Crown should descend to Her Royal Highness the Princess Alexandrina Victoria, daughter of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Kent, being under the age of eighteen years, and for the care and guardianship of her person.

An Act to amend an Act, of the last session, for the better administration of justice, so far as relates to

to the essoign and general return days of each term, and to substitute other provisions in lieu thereof; and to declare the law with regard to the duration of the terms in certain cases.

An Act to continue, for the term of six calendar months, all such commissions, appointments, grants, or patents of offices or employments, civil or military, as were in force at the time of the demise of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and as have not been superseded, determined, or made void during the reign of His present Majesty.

An Act to render valid Acts done by the Governor of any of His Majesty's plantations, after the expiration of his commission by the demise of His late Majesty, and to extend the period within which the patents of Governors of colonies shall, on any future demise of the Crown, become vacant, and to provide for the longer duration of the patents of Governors after the demise of the Crown.

An Act for more effectually repairing and otherwise improving the road from Highgate, in the county of Middlesex, through Whetstone, to Chipping Barnet, in the county of Hertford; and the road from Chipping Barnet to the thirteen mile-stone, near Gannick Corner, in the parish of South Mims, in the said county of Middlesex.

An Act for repairing, amending, and maintaining the roads from Marchwiell, through Bangor, Worthenbury, and Hanmer, to Whitchurch, and from Bangor to Malpas, and from Redbrook to Hampton, in the counties of Denbigh, Flint, Chester, and Salop.

And one private Bill.

Dublin-Castle, December 23, 1830.

The Marquess of Anglesey, who embarked at Holyhead on Wednesday morning the 22d of December, on board the Escape steam-vessel, arrived at Kingstown Harbour at eleven o'clock at night. His Lordship, on his arrival in Dublin this day, was received by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the City of Dublin; his Lordship, attended by a squadron of dragoons, proceeded to the Castle, and the Council having assembled, at two o'clock, was introduced in form to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, who received him sitting under the canopy of state in the Presence Chamber, from whence a procession was made, in the usual state, to the Council Chamber; the Council sitting, his Lordship's commission was read, and the oaths being administered to him, his Lordship was invested with the collar of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, and received the sword of state from the Lords Justices. His Excellency afterwards repaired to the Presence Chamber and received the compliments of the Nobility and other persons of distinction, upon his safe arrival and taking upon him the Government of Ireland.
